Pages 6 - 7 explain who can be covered, where and when you are covered, policy options, your premium and policy cancellation rights.

'Cover for your health'

Cover is limited after the 20th week of pregnancy, so if anyone on the policy is going to be more than 20 weeks pregnant, please consider whether this policy is right for you.

'What we cover'

Pages 12 - 24 describe what cover is available, conditions applying to that cover, what you must do to ensure you're covered, and what we will and won't pay.

Here are some highlights from each section:

- 'Section 1: Emergency medical'

You must notify us at the earliest opportunity if you're hospitalised or require emergency treatment.

If you've been hospitalised and are travelling alone, or your children need someone to look after them while you're in hospital, there is cover for an emergency companion to help you out. See pages 12 - 13 for details.

- 'Section 2: Emergency dental'

Emergency dental treatment is covered for the relief of unexpected sudden and acute pain. See page 14 for details.

- 'Section 3: Funeral costs'

If someone on the policy passes away while on holiday, cover is provided for a funeral in that location or to return their remains to New Zealand, regardless of the cause of death. See page 14 for details.

- 'Section 4: Holiday cancellation & changes'

Cover is provided if you have to cancel or change your holiday arrangements because of an unexpected event. However, events related to people not travelling on holiday with you are only covered under certain circumstances and cover is limited if it relates to an existing health condition. See pages 15 - 17 for details.

- 'Section 5: Delayed to a special event'

If your prepaid scheduled transport is delayed or cancelled and you're unable to get to a special event on time, there's cover for you to take alternative transport. See page 18 for details.

- 'Section 6: Rental vehicle insurance excess'

If your rental vehicle is unexpectedly damaged or stolen, there's cover for the rental vehicle insurance excess that you're responsible for. See page 19 for details.

- 'Section 7: Personal liability'

If you become liable for a death, bodily injury or damage to property, there's limited cover under this section. See page 20 for details.

- 'Section 8: Passports, travel documents & bank cards'

If passports, travel documents or bank cards are accidentally lost, stolen or damaged, there's cover to replace them but you must retain receipts for costs incurred and provide them with your claim. See page 21 for details.

- 'Section 9: Luggage delay'

If your luggage is delayed, there's cover for you to purchase essential items, but you must retain receipts and provide them with your claim. See page 22 for details.

- 'Section 10: Personal items & cash'

This policy doesn't cover accidental loss, items merely left behind, misplaced or left unattended. For example, leaving your sunglasses behind at a restaurant isn't covered. It's also not designed to cover high value items, and there are limits to the amount of cover provided for certain items. There is no cover for jewellery, other than wedding rings, engagement rings and watches, so if you're taking expensive items away on holiday, please consider whether this policy is right for you. See pages 23 - 24 for details.

'What we won't pay under any circumstances'

Pages 25 - 27 list things that aren't covered under any section of the policy.

'Making changes to your policy'

Page 28 explains when, what and how you can make changes to your policy.

'Claiming with Holiday Rescue'

Pages 29 - 30 explain how to claim, what you need to do, and how long it will take.

'What if I'm not happy?'

Page 31 explains what the process is if you have a complaint.

'Other matters'

Page 32 explains how we protect your privacy, and which law the policy is governed by.

'Definitions'

Pages 33 - 35 explain the meaning of words that are bold in this document.

About this policy.

You can buy Holiday Rescue travel insurance on our website holidayrescue.co.nz.

You must have an email address...

so that we can communicate with you on anything related to your policy. As confirmation of your policy, we'll email you policy documents, so please check that the details are correct when you receive them.

You must have access to a valid New Zealand bank account...

to receive any claim payments. We don't issue cheques.

Your policy is made up of:

- a) this document;
- b) the certificate of insurance; and
- c) any other terms and conditions;

that you receive by email from us.

To be eligible to buy this policy you must:

- a) be an New Zealand or Australian citizen, or a permanent resident of New Zealand; and
- b) buy before the start of your holiday; and
- c) plan to end your holiday in New Zealand, if you're going on an overseas holiday.

You must select all countries that you're visiting during your holiday when you apply for a policy...

which includes any stopovers for 24 hours or more, and anywhere you're clearing customs and immigration and leaving the airport or cruise terminal.

Each country selected will be displayed on your certificate of insurance. Please check the countries listed are correct, as you won't be covered in any country not listed on your certificate of insurance.

We understand that holiday plans change and you may decide to add a few more countries to your itinerary after you purchase your policy – just make sure you add those countries to your policy. See page 28 for details on 'Making changes to your policy'.

If you're going on a cruise for more than one night, you must:

- a) select all countries that you plan to visit while on the cruise; and
- b) select 'cruise';

when you apply for a policy. If you don't select 'cruise' but are going on one, non-refundable deposits relating to your cruise will not be covered.

Choose from three policy types:

1. Comprehensive: covers holidays to destinations outside of New Zealand and provides cover under all sections of the policy.
2. Essentials: covers holidays to destinations outside of New Zealand, but doesn't provide cover for 'Luggage delay' or 'Personal items & cash'.
3. Domestic: covers holidays within New Zealand but doesn't provide cover for 'Emergency medical', 'Emergency dental', 'Luggage delay' or 'Personal items & cash'.

Your cover starts:

- a) as soon as you purchase your policy for 'Holiday cancellation & changes' and 'Delayed to a special event'; and
- b) at the start of your holiday for all other sections.

Your cover ends:

- a) at the end of your holiday; or
- b) on the date you submit a claim under 'Holiday cancellation & changes' following the cancellation of your entire holiday by you.

If there is anyone named on the certificate of insurance that doesn't cancel their holiday, cover remains for them under the policy. The 'Holiday cancellation & changes' cover limit will be reduced by the amount that we have paid out on any cancellation claim.

We'll advise you of any premium you are required to pay...

when you apply to purchase, amend or extend your policy.

If you disclose any pre-existing medical conditions to us after you purchase your policy but before the start of your holiday, we'll advise you of any additional premium you are required to pay.

The premium is based on...

the policy type, number and ages of the people on the policy, countries you have selected, duration of your holiday, and your pre-existing medical conditions, if applicable. The higher the risk, the higher the premium. The premium also includes GST, if applicable.

You have 14 days from the date you purchase your policy to decide if it meets your needs.

We call this the 'cooling-off' period. During this period, you can cancel your policy and we'll give you a full refund of your premium, provided:

- a) you haven't made, and don't intend to make, a claim under the policy; and
- b) the start of your holiday has not passed.

We won't refund any premium after the 'cooling-off' period (unless required by law), even if you cancel your policy.

No claim can be paid once your policy is cancelled.

To cancel your policy, go to our website holidayrescue.co.nz/policy.

Cover for your health.

If you're injured or become sick overseas, pre-existing medical conditions can complicate medical treatment, lengthen your recovery, and increase medical costs. They may also increase the chance of needing to cancel your holiday for health reasons. So it's important that you carefully consider the medical history of anyone on the policy, and understand what this policy covers when it comes to your health. You must tell us if the health of anyone on the policy changes before you go on holiday.

What's a pre-existing medical condition (PEC)?

Any symptom or medical condition that you're aware of, or a reasonable person in your circumstances should be aware of, when you apply for a policy and/or anytime before the start of your holiday, that:

- a) you're waiting to see a medical professional about, or waiting for a test or investigation, or the results of a test or investigation; or
- b) requires ongoing treatment or check-ups; or
- c) you should be taking prescribed medication for; or
- d) you've seen a medical professional for in the last 3 months before you purchase your policy, or at any time before the start of your holiday; or
- e) you've had surgery or been hospitalised for in the last 3 years before you purchase your policy, or at any time before the start of your holiday; or
- f) relates to heart problems (such as angina, palpitations, high blood pressure, or stenting), stroke, transient ischaemic attack (TIA), chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD), or cancer.

We don't consider an everyday cold or tummy bug, to be a pre-existing medical condition.

You must disclose to us all PEC's for everyone on the policy.

When you apply for a policy, you must tell us about all symptoms or medical conditions that meets our PEC definition.

If, after you purchase your policy but before the start of your holiday, you see a medical professional for something other than an everyday cold, tummy bug, or routine check-up, you must email us at hello@holidayrescue.co.nz as soon as reasonably possible, and before you go on holiday.

You'll need to complete a medical assessment...

so that we can assess your overall health risk and issue policy terms specifically tailored to each person's risk. This means you only pay for the risk of the people on your policy, and more importantly, you can go on holiday knowing exactly what is covered when it comes to your health.

If you have a symptom that hasn't been diagnosed, and you've seen, or are going to see, a medical professional about it...

it's considered to be a PEC and you'll need to answer 'yes' when asked if you have any PEC's during your policy application. If it arises after you purchase your policy but prior to the start of your holiday, you must email us about it as soon as reasonably possible.

As you don't have a diagnosis for your symptoms, you won't be able to complete a medical assessment, and we won't be able to assess and price your overall health risk. This means we can't cover any of your PEC's.

Undiagnosed symptoms can be minor, or something more serious, but either way, your overall health risk is unknown, so we can't cover this risk.

If you receive a diagnosis before the start of your holiday, please email us at hello@holidayrescue.co.nz so we can advise whether there is any change to your cover.

There are two possible outcomes once you've completed a medical assessment for your PEC's when you apply for a policy:

1. We can cover your PEC's.

We'll offer you a policy covering unexpected events relating to your PEC's. Your policy premium will include an amount to cover that additional risk.

2. We can't cover your PEC's.

If your risk is higher than we're prepared to cover, or unknown because you have symptoms that haven't been diagnosed, we'll offer you a policy with the following terms:

- a) you won't be covered for any claims, costs or losses, that arise from or relate to, your excluded PEC's; and
- b) 'Holiday cancellation & changes' cover will be limited to $20,000 per policy for any events relating to the health of the person whose pre-existing medical conditions are excluded, including accidents or injuries; and
- c) if you're travelling overseas with an Essentials or Comprehensive policy, 'Emergency medical' cover will be limited to $20,000 per policy, including for accidents or injuries, but only for the person whose PEC's are excluded.

We'll advise you of these terms before you purchase so you can decide whether the policy is right for you, and they'll be listed on your certificate of insurance if you buy the policy.

There are two possible outcomes once a medical assessment is completed for a change in health and/or a new PEC that has arisen after you purchase your policy but before the start of your holiday:

1. We can cover your PEC's.

We'll advise you of any additional policy premium that you're required to pay for the cover. You may have already paid a premium to cover pre-existing medical conditions declared when you purchased your policy. But if your overall health risk has increased, we have the right to collect additional premium to cover the increase in risk.

Once you have paid any additional premium required, we'll email modified policy documents to you, with your covered pre-existing medical conditions listed on the certificate of insurance.

2. We can't cover your PEC's.

Even if your PEC's were covered when you purchased your policy, your overall health risk has either increased beyond what we are prepared to cover, or is now unknown because you've developed symptoms that haven't been diagnosed, and we can no longer provide unlimited 'Emergency medical' cover under the terms of your existing policy.

You are covered under the terms of your existing policy to cancel your holiday and make a claim under 'Holiday cancellation & changes'.

If you still want to go on holiday, you have the option to accept a policy with the following modified terms:

- a) you won't be covered for any claims, costs or losses, that arise from or relate to, your excluded PEC's; and
- b) 'Holiday cancellation & changes' cover will be limited to $20,000 per policy for any events relating to the health of the person whose pre-existing medical conditions are excluded, including accidents or injuries; and
- c) if you're travelling overseas with an Essentials or Comprehensive policy, 'Emergency medical' cover will be limited to $20,000 per person, including for accidents or injuries, but only for the person whose PEC's are excluded.

If you choose this option, we'll email modified policy documents to you, with these terms listed on your certificate of insurance.

If you're pregnant you don't need to tell us, but you do need to tell us about any pregnancy complications.

We consider pregnancy complications to be PEC's so you need to declare them, along with any other PEC's, so we can assess your overall health risk.

If you're 20 weeks pregnant or less...

you're automatically covered for unexpected events relating to your pregnancy, as long as you don't have any pregnancy complications.

If you're more than 20 weeks pregnant, cover is limited:

- a) 'Holiday cancellation & changes' cover is limited to $20,000 per policy, for claims relating to the health of the person who is pregnant, including accidents or injuries; and
- b) if you have an Essentials or Comprehensive policy, 'Emergency medical' cover is limited to $20,000 per person, including accidents or injuries, but only for the person who is more than 20 weeks pregnant.

Regardless of how many weeks pregnant you are, we don't cover:

- a) childbirth at any stage of your pregnancy; or
- b) the health or care of a newborn not named on your certificate of insurance; or
- c) common pregnancy symptoms such as breast tenderness, constipation, fatigue, nausea and regular antenatal care, as we don't consider them to be unexpected.

If you don't declare all pre-existing medical conditions when you apply for a policy, or changes in health before the start of your holiday...

you may jeopardise cover under your policy and/or whether we pay a claim. See page 11 for details on 'Your disclosure responsibilities'.

Your disclosure responsibilities.

You have disclosure responsibilities to us:

- a) when you apply for a policy;
- b) if you have a change in health before the start of your holiday; and
- c) anytime you want to make a change to your policy.

What you need to tell us:

We'll ask certain questions to assess, or reassess, your travel related risk. You must answer our questions honestly and tell us anything that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include, but you don't need to tell us something unless we specifically ask you about it. We'll use your answers to determine if we'll insure you and, if so, on what terms.

See page 8 for details on changes in your health, and page 28 about making a change to your policy.

If you're disclosing information on behalf of anyone else on the policy...

you're responsible for meeting the disclosure responsibilities on their behalf.

If you don't meet your disclosure responsibilities...

such as not telling us something you are required to, or being dishonest or acting fraudulently in answering our questions, we may at our sole discretion:

- a) refuse to pay all or part of your claim;
- b) cancel your policy without refunding any premium (except as required by law);
- c) treat the policy as if it never existed; and/or
- d) refuse to provide any further insurance.

You won't be covered under the extension for:

- a) any change in health, illness or injury that arose before the start of the extension; or
- b) any costs or losses relating to events or circumstances that occurred before the start of the extension.

If we agree to extend your cover, we will advise you of any additional premium that you're required to pay. Cover for the extended period will start once we have received any additional premium required, and confirmed the cover to you by email.

The extension will be offered under the terms of the document (PDS) in effect when you purchased your original policy.

If your return home is unexpectedly delayed, we'll automatically extend your policy until...

you're reasonably able to return home, or for a period of no more than 24 months from the time of the unexpected event that caused the delay, whichever happens first.

This extension will be free of charge and you don't need to contact us to organise it.

If you choose to end your holiday early...

no premium will be refundable for the unused portion of your policy. We consider your policy to be used as we have provided cover to you and accepted the risk.

Claiming with Holiday Rescue.

We hope that nothing goes wrong on your holiday, but if it does and you need to claim, that's what we're here for. Just go to our website at holidayrescue.co.nz/claims to submit your claim online.

'Excess' is the amount that you are responsible for on a claim.

It will be deducted, if applicable, from any claim payment we make to you. If you're claiming for more than one event, the excess will apply to each event.

For example, if you need to book an additional night at a hotel because your flight is delayed, and then you need to come home early because your grandmother is hospitalised, two excesses will be deducted from your claim payment.

We'll ask certain questions to assess and process your claim...

and you must answer honestly, and tell us everything that you know, or could be reasonably expected to know, when answering our questions. You must also supply any information we reasonably request.

We'll assess your claim within...

10 business days of receiving your claim, provided you have included all necessary supporting documentation with your claim. If we need additional information, we will email you within 10 business days to request this information.

All claim amounts we pay to you...

will be in New Zealand dollars.

If you can claim from someone else...

to receive reimbursement or compensation for any cost or loss covered under this policy (including but not limited to airlines, transport providers, hotels, and travel agents), you must claim from them first. If they don't pay you the full amount of your cost or loss, we'll pay you the difference.

If you know of any third party that money may be recovered from, you must tell us about them...

so that we may control and settle proceedings for our own benefit in your name and on your behalf, to recover money from any party regarding any claim covered by this policy. This is known as subrogation. You must assist and allow us to do what is necessary for these purposes, regardless of whether we've already paid your claim or not, and whether we pay you partial or full compensation for your loss.

Once we have paid the total amount of your loss, we'll retain any extra funds. If we pay your claim for irrecoverable or damaged property and you get it back, or it's replaced by a third party, you must pay us back the same amount we paid you.

Insurance fraud forces insurance premiums to increase resulting in honest policyholders paying more for their policy.

We encourage you to assist in reducing insurance fraud by reporting it to us at hello@holidayrescue.co.nz.

All information provided to us will be treated with complete confidentiality, and will be protected to the full extent of the law.

Submitting an insurance claim that is not true, incorrect, did not occur, misleading or exaggerated, is a criminal offence under New Zealand law and can lead to prosecutions.

If you don't assist us with your claim, or you act dishonestly or fraudulently...

such as not telling us something you are required to, refusing to assist us with the information we request to process your claim, or submitting a claim which is fraudulent or false in any respect, we may at our sole discretion:

- a) refuse to pay all or part of your claim;
- b) cancel your policy without refunding any premium (except as required by law);
- c) treat the policy as if it never existed; and/or
- d) refuse to provide any further insurance.

If you, or someone authorised and acting for you, submits to us any false or misleading information, you may be prosecuted.

If a claim, or claims, are made on behalf of someone else, the person making the claim:

- a) must have their full authority to act on their behalf, and
- b) is responsible for ensuring any payments are distributed appropriately to the people concerned.

Neither Holiday Rescue nor Hollard, is responsible if any payments are not distributed appropriately to the people concerned.
